

Episode 6 – Cracking the Code Written in Stone

Draw a picture of an archeologist's worksite:
(Hint: where scientists dig carefully to discover old things.)

What do you think this Mayan symbol stands for?

Why do you think Pepper feels the line was cut on purpose?

---

---

---

---

---

Fill in the blanks with the correct letter from the word bank:

Pepper quickly improvises by ____ a grappling hook to a ____ line. She throws the ____ into the water. It catches on a coral head just in time and the Mimi is saved from the dangerous rocks. She ____ to investigate the anchor line. It looked as though it had been _____. Quiche teaches C.T. about the ancient Mayan _____. He designs a computer program that converts numbers from Arabic to Maya. While discussing the events of the past few days over dinner, the crew begins to suspect that _____ are somehow involved with _____. Quiche discovers the ____ for Chac Balam on C.T.'s "fake" pot, and Terry and Victor decide to take the pot to INAH for further study.

Word Bank:

- A. glyph
- B. heavy
- C. cut deliberately
- D. hook
- E. dives
- F. number system
- G. looters
- H. tying
- I. Site U